Black Rio! Black Power! (Cert. TBC)	Dir: Emilio Domingos	Brazil	2023	75 mins
This fascinating documentary explores the transformative power of soul music in 1970s Rio de Janeiro, where dance events became crucial spaces for the political affirmation and resistance of the young black community. Through the lens of the Black Rio Movement, the film highlights the role of music in the struggle for racial equality during Brazil's military dictatorship and traces its enduring influence on genres like hip-hop and funk. It also examines the movement's legacy on Black pride, aesthetic values, and the ongoing fight for racial justice, as seen through the experiences of movement leaders like Dom Filó and the impact on subsequent generations.

In winter in the south of France, a young woman is found frozen in a ditch. She's unkempt, a vagabond. Through flashbacks and brief interviews, we trace her final weeks as she camps alone or falls in with various men and women, many of whom project their needs onto her or try to give her life direction. She squats in an old house smoking hash with a man, falls for a Tunisian labourer and works beside him pruning grape vines, stays with a couple shepherding goats, meets an agronomist trying to save trees, gets tipsy with an old woman, and has an offer to appear in porn films. This QUAD Essentials screening will include an introduction and postfilm discussion.
